The proposed investment is intended to provide the capital necessary to accelerate the Company's next phase of expansion while aligning the interests of the Founder and Investor through responsible governance and long-term enterprise value creation.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

MyMosa | My Drink Family™ (the “Company”) is a premium ready-to-drink (RTD) wine cocktail company and one of the earliest pioneers in the modern RTD wine cocktail category, founded in 2011 by Ernest Yearby. After an initial period of growth and national placements, the Company is now positioned for a major relaunch and expansion.

The Company has developed a portfolio of premium-quality RTD wine cocktails with strong consumer appeal, attractive margins, and scalable distribution potential. With the right capital and strategic support, the Company is positioned to establish a meaningful market presence in key U.S. markets, beginning with Texas.

This Memorandum outlines the proposed terms of a strategic investment by Edgar Jimenez (the “Investor”) to accelerate manufacturing capacity, inventory, distribution, marketing, and brand growth.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Proven Concept: Established brand with historical sales, retailer acceptance, and consumer demand.
- First-Mover Advantage: One of the first RTD wine cocktail brands, launched in 2011.
- Premium Product Portfolio: High-quality, great-tasting products with strong repeat purchase potential.
- Scalable Business Model: Asset-light operating model with established manufacturing capabilities and scalable distribution.
- Attractive Revenue Potential: High-margin products with significant upside across on-premises, off-premise, and retail channels.
- Experienced Leadership: Founder-led company with deep industry knowledge and operational execution experience.
- Growth Plan: Focused expansion beginning in Texas, with additional state rollouts to follow.
- Use of Proceeds: Strategic allocation of capital to drive measurable growth and market penetration.

This investment represents an opportunity to partner with a category pioneer and participate in the next phase of growth for a differentiated, premium RTD wine cocktail brand.

PURPOSE OF THIS MEMORANDUM

The purpose of this Memorandum is to summarize the principal business terms discussed between MyMosa / My Drink Family ("Company") and Edgar Jimenez ("Investor") regarding a proposed strategic investment in the Company.

This Memorandum is intended solely as a discussion document to facilitate continued negotiations between the parties. It is designed to set forth the general terms and conditions of the proposed transaction prior to the preparation and execution of definitive legal agreements.

This Memorandum does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall it be construed as creating any legally binding obligation on the part of either party.

The terms and conditions contained herein are preliminary in nature, subject to further review, negotiation, and approval by both parties and their respective legal counsel. All provisions contained in this Memorandum are expressly qualified in their entirety by reference to the definitive agreements to be executed by the parties.

Neither party shall be bound by any term or provision of this Memorandum until and unless definitive legal agreements have been negotiated, approved by legal counsel, and executed by all required parties.

This Memorandum is confidential and shall be used solely for the purpose of evaluating the proposed transaction. It may not be reproduced, distributed, or disclosed to any third party without the prior written consent of the disclosing party, except to legal, accounting, or financial advisors who are bound by confidentiality obligations.

INTENDED PROCESS

This Memorandum is intended to establish a framework for continued discussions and to outline the process by which the parties will proceed toward a definitive transaction agreement.

The parties anticipate the following process:

1. Review of Business Terms.

Both parties will review the business terms and confirm their mutual understanding as set forth in this Memorandum.

2. Revision and Clarification.

The parties will discuss and resolve any questions, comments, or revisions necessary to refine the proposed terms.

3. Attorney Review.

This Memorandum will be shared with the parties' respective legal counsel for review, feedback, and recommendations.

4. Preparation of Definitive Agreements.

Legal counsel will draft the definitive transaction documents reflecting the mutually agreed-upon terms and conditions.

5. Final Execution.

The parties will review, approve, and execute the definitive legal agreements, at which point the transaction will become legally binding.

Nothing contained in this Memorandum shall obligate either party to proceed with the proposed investment until such time as definitive legal agreements have been fully executed.

PARTIES TO THE TRANSACTION

THE COMPANY

MyMosa | My Drink Family™ (the "Company") is a premium ready-to-drink wine cocktail company founded by Ernest Yearby in 2011. The Company was established as one of the early pioneers in the modern RTD wine cocktail category.

The Company's mission is to build a nationally recognized brand family through exceptional products, strategic distribution, and operational excellence. The proposed investment will support the expansion of manufacturing, inventory, distribution, marketing, and brand development initiatives.

THE FOUNDER

Ernest Yearby

Founder & Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Yearby founded the Company and will continue to serve as Chief Executive Officer following the investment. He will remain responsible for the management of the Company's day-to-day operations, strategic planning, manufacturing relationships, sales execution, distributor development, and overall brand growth.

THE INVESTOR

Edgar Jimenez

Prospective Strategic Investor

Mr. Jimenez is evaluating a proposed capital investment in the Company under the terms outlined in this Memorandum. Subject to satisfactory completion of due diligence and execution of definitive agreements, Mr. Jimenez will become a minority equity investor providing growth capital to support the Company's expansion objectives.

PROPOSED INVESTMENT TERMS

Investment Amount: $250,000.00

Investor Equity Ownership: 20% of the Company's issued ownership interests.

Interest Rate: 7.5% annually.

Interest Commencement: Interest shall accrue beginning upon funding of the investment.

Payment Deferral: No interest payments shall be due during the first thirteen (13) months following funding.

Repayment Term: Following the thirteen-month deferral period, accrued interest and any scheduled payments shall be paid pursuant to the definitive agreement negotiated by the parties.

Founder Compensation: Founder compensation shall be determined from time to time based upon the Company's financial performance, available working capital, operating requirements, and long-term strategic objectives. Management intends to prioritize reinvestment into the Company's growth while maintaining reasonable compensation consistent with responsible financial stewardship.

Use of Capital: Investment proceeds shall be utilized exclusively for the Company's approved operating budget and strategic growth initiatives as described in this Memorandum.

The parties acknowledge that these business terms represent the commercial understanding reached during negotiations and remain subject to attorney review, final documentation, and execution of definitive legal agreements.

USE OF FUNDS

The parties acknowledge that the purpose of this investment is to accelerate the commercial expansion of MyMosa | My Drink Family™ while maintaining disciplined financial management and preserving long-term enterprise value.

Investment proceeds are presently expected to be allocated substantially toward:

- Manufacturing and production
- Inventory development
- Packaging and regulatory compliance
- Distribution expansion
- Retail account development
- Hospitality and on-premises market activation
- Sales, marketing, and consumer awareness initiatives
- General corporate purposes and working capital consistent with the Company's approved operating plan

Management may adjust allocations among these categories as business conditions, production requirements, market opportunities, or operational priorities evolve, provided such adjustments remain consistent with the Company's strategic objectives and the prudent stewardship of investment capital.

The Company shall maintain appropriate financial records documenting the deployment of investment proceeds and shall provide periodic reporting to the Investor in accordance with the Reporting & Performance Standards set forth elsewhere in this Memorandum.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Governance Framework

The parties acknowledge that MyMosa | My Drink Family™ shall remain a founder-led company with Ernest Yearby serving as Founder and Chief Executive Officer.

Unless otherwise provided in the Company's governing documents or definitive transaction agreements, responsibility for the Company's day-to-day management shall remain with the Founder.

The Investor acknowledges that the Company's value is substantially dependent upon the Founder continuing to lead the Company's strategic direction, operations, distribution relationships, manufacturing oversight, sales initiatives, and long-term vision.

Founder Authority

The Founder shall retain authority over, including but not limited to:

- Daily business operations
- Hiring and personnel decisions
- Marketing and branding initiatives
- Distributor and retailer relationships
- Manufacturing and supply chain management
- Product development
- Strategic partnerships
- Execution of the Company's approved

Reserved Matters

The following actions shall require approval pursuant to the Company's governing documents and any definitive investment agreements executed by the parties:

- Sales of substantially all Company assets
- Merger, acquisition, or similar change-of-control transactions
- Dissolution or liquidation of the Company
- Issuance of material additional equity that would substantially dilute ownership interests
- Incurrence of extraordinary indebtedness outside the ordinary course of business

This governance structure is intended to preserve efficient management while protecting the legitimate interests of all parties and supporting long-term enterprise value.

FOUNDER RESPONSIBILITIES

The Founder recognizes that acceptance of strategic investment carries a responsibility to exercise prudent financial management, disciplined execution, and transparent communication.

Accordingly, the Founder agrees to:

Operational Leadership	Lead all aspects of the Company's operations and execute the approved business strategy.
Financial Stewardship	Manage Company capital responsibly and deploy investment proceeds substantially in accordance with the approved Use of Funds .
Reporting	Provide regular operational updates together with monthly business summaries and quarterly financial reporting as described elsewhere in this Memorandum.
Budget Compliance	Operate the Company in accordance with the approved operating budget while exercising prudent financial management. Management compensation, distributions, and operating expenditures shall be determined in accordance with the Company's governing documents, approved financial plans, and applicable law.
Growth Execution	Continue expanding manufacturing capacity, distribution relationships, retailer placements, hospitality accounts, strategic partnerships, and product development with the objective of increasing enterprise value.
Fiduciary Commitment	Exercise reasonable business judgment in good faith and in a manner intended to promote the long-term success and value of the Company.

The Founder remains committed to building a sustainable enterprise through disciplined execution, responsible capital allocation, operational excellence, and long-term shareholder value creation.

INVESTOR RIGHTS

The Investor's role is intended to be that of a strategic capital partner rather than an operating manager unless otherwise expressly provided in definitive transaction documents.

To promote transparency while preserving management efficiency, the Investor shall receive the following rights:

Information Rights Quarterly financial statements, including income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow summaries.

Operating Updates Monthly written updates regarding production progress, distribution expansion, major operational milestones, and significant business developments.

Financial Transparency Reasonable access to Company financial records upon reasonable advance notice during normal business hours.

Participation Rights in Future Financings Subject to the definitive investment agreements, the Investor may be offered the opportunity to participate in future equity financings on substantially similar terms, subject to customary exceptions.

Strategic Consultation Management will consult with the Investor regarding significant strategic initiatives affecting the long-term direction of the Company. Such consultation shall not be interpreted as transferring operational authority unless expressly agreed in writing.

Limitations of Rights Except as expressly provided in definitive legal agreements, the Investor shall not possess authority to direct the Company's daily operations, personnel decisions, product development, branding, manufacturing, pricing, sales execution, or other operational management functions.

The objective of these rights is to foster transparency, accountability, and long-term alignment while preserving the founder-led operating structure that has guided the Company's development.

EQUITY BUYBACK PROVISION

Company Buyback Option

Subject to the execution of definitive transaction documents, the Company may retain the option, but not the obligation, to repurchase a portion of the Investor's membership interest under the terms outlined herein and as further described in the definitive investment agreements.

Buyback Commencement

The Company's optional buyback rights may become exercisable beginning twenty-four (24) months following the closing of the investment, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.

Maximum Buyback

The Company may elect to repurchase up to ten percentage points (10%) of the Investor's original ownership interest.

- Original Investor Ownership: 20%
- Maximum Repurchase: 10%
- Remaining Investor Ownership: 10%

Valuation Method

Any repurchase price shall be determined using the fair market value of the Company established through an independent third-party business valuation performed by a qualified valuation professional mutually acceptable to both parties.

The purchase price shall equal the fair market value of the ownership interest being repurchased as determined by such valuation.

Optional Exercise

The Company shall have no obligation to exercise any buyback option.

Likewise, the Investor shall have no obligation to sell except pursuant to the terms contained within the definitive transaction agreements.

Purpose

The buyback provision is intended to provide long-term capital flexibility while preserving alignment between the Company's growth objectives and the Investor's participation in future enterprise value.

STRATEGIC GROWTH CAPITAL COMMITMENT

Strategic Capital Partnership

The Founder and the Investor acknowledge that the initial investment of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars (US $250,000) is intended to fund the Company's initial phase of accelerated growth. Both parties further recognize that the successful execution of the Company's strategic plan may require additional growth capital as expansion milestones are achieved.

The parties acknowledge that this provision reflects their mutual intention to establish a long-term strategic capital relationship designed to support the Company's continued expansion beyond the initial investment.

Strategic Growth Capital Commitment

Subject to the Company achieving mutually agreed operational milestones and maintaining satisfactory business performance, the Investor intends to make available up to an aggregate of One Million Dollars (US $1,000,000) in additional growth capital.

Such capital is anticipated to be made available in increments of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars (US $250,000), as reasonably requested by the Company and mutually approved by the parties. Each capital advance shall be documented through separate financing agreements executed at the time of funding.

Nothing contained herein shall obligate the Company to request the full aggregate commitment, and any unused portion shall remain subject to the definitive transaction documents executed by the parties.

Financing Philosophy

The Investor has represented that, during his ownership of the Company, he generally supports companies in which he maintains an ownership interest through shareholder financing rather than additional equity dilution.

Accordingly, the parties anticipate that future capital advances may be structured as shareholder loans or other mutually acceptable financing arrangements intended to support the Company's long-term growth while preserving ownership value.

Should the Investor elect to provide shareholder financing on a zero-interest basis, the applicable terms shall be documented within the financing agreement governing the respective capital advance.

Right of First Opportunity

Before seeking comparable third-party growth financing, the Company intends to provide the Investor with the first opportunity to participate in future capital raises contemplated by this Section.

If the Investor declines to participate or does not respond within thirty (30) days following receipt of a written funding request, the Company shall be free to pursue alternative financing from third-party sources without restriction.

Purpose

The purpose of this provision is to establish a long-term strategic capital relationship that supports the Company's continued expansion while minimizing unnecessary equity dilution, preserving financing flexibility, and aligning the long-term interests of both the Founder and the Investor.

REPORTING & PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

Following the closing of the investment, the Company intends to provide the Investor with periodic operational and financial reporting designed to promote transparency while allowing management to maintain efficient day-to-day operations.

Monthly Operating Update

The Company intends to provide periodic summaries including:

- Production activity
- Inventory status
- Distribution progress
- Retail account development
- Significant operational milestones

Quarterly Financial Reporting

Reports are anticipated to include:

- Profit and Loss Statement
- Balance Sheet
- Cash Flow Summary
- Budget versus Actual Performance

Capital Deployment Updates

The Company intends to periodically summarize how investment proceeds have been deployed relative to the approved operating plan and strategic growth initiatives.

Material Business Developments

Management intends to notify the Investor of material business developments that could reasonably impact operations, financing activities, regulatory compliance, or enterprise value.

Partnership Philosophy

Both parties acknowledge that transparency is intended to strengthen the long-term relationship while preserving management's ability to efficiently execute the Company's strategic plan.

The reporting framework described herein is intended as a communication guideline and shall be further defined within the definitive investment agreements.

CLOSING CONDITIONS

Conditions Precedent

The proposed investment shall remain subject to the satisfactory completion of customary due diligence and the negotiation and execution of definitive transaction documents acceptable to both parties.

Legal Documentation

Preparation, review, negotiation, and execution of definitive legal agreements by counsel representing each respective party.

Due Diligence

Completion of customary financial, legal, operational, and commercial due diligence reasonably satisfactory to the Investor.

The Company intends to cooperate in providing information reasonably requested throughout the diligence process.

Corporate Documentation

Confirmation that the Company's organizational documents, ownership records, governance documents, and capitalization records accurately reflect the proposed transaction.

Closing Deliverables

Prior to funding, the parties anticipate completion of substantially the following:

- Final Investment Agreement
- Equity Issuance of Documents
- Promissory Note (if applicable)
- Membership Interest Certificate
- Updated Capitalization Table
- Company Resolutions Authorizing the Transaction
- Funding Instructions

Target Closing

The anticipated closing date shall be mutually determined following satisfactory completion of the foregoing conditions and execution of the definitive transaction documents.

Memorandum Status Nothing contained within this Memorandum shall obligate either party to complete the proposed transaction until definitive legal agreements have been executed by all required parties.

STRATEGIC VISION & LONG-TERM PARTNERSHIP

Shared Objective

The Founder and the Investor share a common objective of building MyMosa | My Drink Family™ into a nationally recognized premium ready-to-drink beverage platform through disciplined execution, responsible capital allocation, and long-term strategic growth.

The proposed investment is intended to accelerate the Company's expansion into multiple geographic markets by strengthening manufacturing capabilities, distribution partnerships, retail presence, and overall market position.

Long-Term Growth Strategy

The Company intends to pursue sustainable expansion through:

- Regional and national distribution growth
- Continued product innovation and portfolio expansion
- Expansion of retail and hospitality partnerships
- Brand development and consumer awareness
- Strategic partnerships that enhance enterprise value

Enterprise Value Creation

The parties acknowledge that successful execution of the Company's strategic plan may create opportunities for:

- Future financing rounds
- Strategic acquisitions
- Strategic partnerships
- Recapitalization opportunities
- Long-term liquidity events for shareholders

No representation or guarantee is made regarding future financial performance or transaction outcomes.

Partnership Philosophy

The Founder and Investor recognize that long-term value creation is best achieved through mutual trust, transparency, disciplined execution, and alignment of interests.

Both parties intend to maintain open communication while preserving management's ability to execute the Company's strategic vision efficiently and responsibly.
